

Pure Haven Salon and Spa focuses on mind, body, and spirit

By EVE MARX
For Seaside Signal

Jody Weaver and Jena Cooke have been friends for 20 years. They’ve been in business together for 15. Seaside natives, they both attended Astoria Beauty College, but not together. The two have had salons in other locations, but in 2017 they had the vision to open Pure Haven Salon and Spa in Seaside at 41 N. Holladay Drive. “We’re interested in more than hair and nails,” Weaver said. “We’re moving in a mind, body, spirit direction.” As soon as you enter Pure Haven Salon and Spa, you’re instantly transported. Weaver and Cooke have created a restful, attractive atmosphere that immediately makes a person go, “Ahhh.” While offering their clients expert hair cutting and styling, as well as customized color, special highlights and low lights and smoothing Keratin treatments, it’s aromatherapy, pampering spa services, acupuncture, down the line possibly even reiki, the duo is focused on. “Our intention is to offer our clients a deluxe spa experience,” Cooke said. They already offering spa pedicures, which have been receiving rave reviews on social media. It’s no small thing their location has really good parking. Pure Haven Salon and Spa is open Monday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. While someone is always there during the day, appointments are recommended. Call Jody or Jena at 503-717-5655 to book your own luxury pampering experience.

Jazz Piano and Nature Photoshow

Seaside Signal

During the upcoming 32nd annual Cannon Beach Stormy Weather Arts Festival, on Saturday, Nov. 2, at 6 p.m., Cannon Beach Community Church presents “Cascade Colors — a Jazz Piano and Nature Photoshow,” featuring nature photos by professional photographer Thomas Robinson and jazz piano music by pianist David Robinson. This benefit will be held at Cannon Beach Community Church, located at 132 E. Washington St. in downtown Cannon Beach, in support of Helping Hands Re-entry Centers with a free will donation basket at the door. Cascade Colors will feature an hour of nature photos captured by Thomas Robinson, digitally presented on the big screen in the church sanctuary. Thomas Robinson, a professional nature photographer who lives in Bend, grew up in Cannon Beach, capturing nature photos of Cannon Beach and the north Oregon coast over the past decades. Nature photos for “Cascade Colors” are arranged around the color wheel, beginning with white images, moving through cyan, blue, green, yellow, orange/brown, red, pink, and purple images, closing with dark blue photos. Nature images are gathered from Cannon Beach, the Oregon Coast, central Cascades, national parks and the Alps.

I got screened.
Now, I’m talking about it.

Screening can prevent colorectal cancer or catch the #2 cancer killer early when it’s highly treatable. Most people get screened because they’re encouraged by someone they know and trust. So if you’ve been screened, please talk about your experience. And encourage others to get screened too.
