Distracted driving

A 23-year-old Seaside man crashed Oct. 17 at 8:25 a.m. on U.S. Highway 101 near milepost 17 when he looked down to adjust the radio. His vehicle drifted off the road and he overcorrected, crashing him into the northbound ditch where he rolled at least one-and-a-half times before his car came to rest on its top. He wasn't hurt and requested Classic Towing for recovery.

DUII on Highway 101

Thomas Henry Berry, 66 from Seaside, was arrested and charged with DUII Oct. 17 at 9:28 p.m. on U.S. Highway 101 at milepost 17. Police say Berry drove off the highway and crashed; he left the scene and returned with a 21-year-old man in another vehicle to pull out the car that crashed. Berry, who was driving, showed signs of impairment. He refused to take the field sobriety test and was arrested. Transported to the county jail, he refused to take a blood alcohol count test. A warrant for a blood draw was submitted and approved by a Clatsop County judge. Medix assisted at the jail with the blood draw and the blood was submitted for testing. No tow was called.

Driver extricated

A 62-year-old Cannon Beach woman was rescued from her crashed car Oct. 19 at 5:06 a.m., on U.S. Highway 101 near milepost 32 at Shannon Lane. The driver lost control in the curves and crashed, dropping her off the edge of the cliff, hundreds of feet down an embankment. She called for help from inside the vehicle and fire personnel used ropes to extricate her. She was taken to the hospital for minor injuries by ambulance. The car was totaled.

Into a ditch

A 61-year-old man traveling too fast in an ODOT posted construction zone on U.S. Highway 101 near milepost 3 Oct 19 at 10:59 a.m. was stopped by a roadway worker and subsequently lost control of his car, sending it into a ditch. He was cited for careless driving and driving without insurance. No injuries were reported and there was no damage to the car.

Sprayed with mace

A woman called 911 on Oct. 19 at 4:54 p.m., to say she was sprayed by mace.
