

OBITUARIES

Rev. John Tindell

Seaside
April 2, 1936 — Dec. 31, 2020

Rev. John Tindell has been called home after a lifetime of service to the Lord, many communities in Alaska and the Pacific Northwest and his family. He died peacefully at home, under hospice care, on Dec. 31, 2020, after a struggle with complications from a stroke.

Rev. John Tindell

John was born on April 2, 1936, in Miami, Florida, to John J. and Mary L. (McLean) Tindell. His mother raised him in their neighborhood Allapattah Methodist Church, which led to his goal at age 12 of serving as a Methodist pastor, a path he followed for almost all of his adult life.

John met Beryl Insinger while they were students at Florida Southern College in Lakeland, Florida. They were married in 1959, while John was finishing a master's degree in divinity from Emory University, and following Beryl's agreement to a life of adventure in Alaska and beyond. The two traveled the globe together extensively. Beryl died in 2018, after 60 years of marriage.

In his deepest self he was an explorer, following mission opportunities in Cuba, Appalachia, Scotland and over 35 years in Alaska. He was the founding pastor of the Sitka United Methodist Church, and the first pastor of the then newly combined Methodist and Presbyterian Northern Light United Church in Juneau. He also led the east Anchorage and Anchorage First United Methodist churches.

After his official retirement in Alaska, John served four more churches, two in Idaho and two in Oregon. His final assignment was 11 years as pastor of the Seaside United Methodist Church in Seaside.

John is survived by his two children, Raymond and Cynthia ("Cindy"); grandson, Kevin; and sister, Estelle Lima, of Miami, Florida.

Raymond is a Portland attorney and graduate of the University of Miami and Southern Methodist University Law School. Cindy is a graduate of Georgetown University, has master's degrees from Columbia University and the Harvard Business School, and is a vice president at NextEra Energy in Palm Beach, Florida.

In retirement years, John and Beryl enjoyed being a part of the life of their grandson, Kevin, a doctoral student at Arizona State University.

A Zoom celebration of life and ministry is planned for Jan. 30 at 11 a.m. Please contact seasideunited-methodist@gmail.com for details.

In memory of John's life, donations may be made to the Alaska Methodist Conference, the Pacific Northwest Methodist Conference or the Seaside United Methodist Church.

Bonnie Jean 'Beanie' Johnsen

Sweet Home
Feb. 15, 1939 — Dec. 23, 2020

Farewell to Beanie Johnsen, longtime Warrenton resident. Our sweet Mom went to be with our Lord on Dec. 23, 2020.

Bonnie 'Beanie' Johnsen

She was born Bonnie Jean Davis on Feb. 15, 1939, in Astoria. Beanie was given her nickname by her five older brothers, and it stuck, and everyone knew her as Beanie.

She was raised in Warrenton, and lived there most of her life. She was raised by her parents, Ruby and Russell Davis, along with five older brothers and one sister.

Beanie attended Warrenton schools, and graduated in 1957. She met and married her high school sweetheart, Norman Johnsen, in 1957. He preceded her in death in 2018. They had been married 61 wonderful years.

While Norman began his career as a commercial fisherman, Beanie chose to stay home to raise their two daughters.

Beanie was active with the girls' lives in school, PTA, sports, piano lessons, 4-H and all of the activities they were involved in. She later worked for the Warrenton School District and Costco.

Beanie loved to cook, garden, sew, read and craft. Although she was not of Norwegian heritage, she loved to cook Norman's favorite Scandinavian foods!

She was a member of the Warrenton Methodist church, Beta Sigma Phi, Jayceettes and Sons of Norway.

The things Beanie loved most were spending time with her family and friends. She had the most fun with her best friend, Gladys Dyer.

During retirement, Beanie and Norman moved around Oregon to be close to their family. They spent many winters in Mexico, which they loved.

Beanie was known for her fun sense of humor and spicy love of life. When visiting Beanie, you could always find a cleaning rag over her shoulder, as her house always sparkled.

Beanie is survived by her daughters, Nancy Keesecker and her husband, Joel, and Paula Johnson and her husband, Brad; grandkids, Blake, Chelsea, Holly, Lindsay and Leah; and several nieces and nephews. She also had seven great-grandchildren. Beanie was loved so incredibly by them all.
