

OBITUARY

Sharon Keist

Battle Ground, Washington
July 13, 1941 — March 26, 2021

On March 26, 2021, Sharon Keist, loving wife, mother and sister, passed away at the age of 79.

Sharon was born July 13, 1941, to Peter and Thelma McCoy, in Astoria. She had three sisters, Susan Leinweber, Shelby Mogens and Sheila Ranta.

She married William

Keist on Oct. 1, 1960. They had three daughters, Kimberly Jones, Kelly Eldred and Kary Doerfler; eight grandchildren, Brandon and Derek Cooper, Alex Robles, Antonia Robles Vernig, Sydney Nichols and Alexis, Ryan and Taylor Doerfler; and three great-grandchildren, Wesley and Bradley Cooper and Logan Doerfler.

Sharon loved the great outdoors, horses, gardening, clam digging and blackberry and mushroom picking. She was an adventurous cook, and made the best pies at holidays. She was a techno queen.

Bill and Sharon enjoyed many years of snow birding in Yuma, Arizona. Sharon never met a stranger. She loved photography and captured life through her camera lens.

Sharon was preceded in death by her parents, Peter and Thelma McCoy; her husband, Bill; and sister, Susan.

to control a very combative and highly intoxicated 18-year-old female. She became a danger to herself and others and was ultimately transferred to Seaside Hospital. OSP stayed with her as she continued to be combative at the hospital as well. After she was medically cleared, Brooke V. Albright was charged with assault and transported to the Clatsop County jail.

Restraining order

Clarence K. Cypher, 57, of Vancouver, Washington, was arrested March 18 at 1:36 p.m., charged with violating a restraining order when he and the protected party, a 61-year-old Washington woman, were stopped in U.S. Highway 101 near milepost 22.5. Cypher, who was behind the wheel, was pulled over for speeding. The trooper, checking his paperwork, learned Cypher was the subject of a no-contact order in Clark County and his passenger was the protected party. Cypher was arrested on scene and transported for lodging at the Clatsop County jail.

Car accident

A 29-year-old Seaside woman was involved in a car accident March 18 at 8:30 p.m., when a car was reported on U.S. Highway 103 near milepost .75 rolled down an embankment. The Elsie Fire Department responded and discovered the car unoccupied. Troopers responded but were unable to access the Mazda and the operator couldn't be located. The registered owner of the car was contacted at an address off that highway but police couldn't access the property. Another trooper arrived on scene to stay with the Mazda. A tow truck was seen and followed to the crash scene and the tow truck operator told police the driver requested tow. The cause of the crash is under investigation.

No littering

A 33-year-old Portland man was cited for offensive littering after a witness reported someone throwing trash from a car traveling south on U.S. Highway 101 near the helicopter pad south of Seaside. Police stopped the described vehicle on U.S. Highway 26.

Hiker located

A 29-year-old male hiker who called 911 March 15 at 8:02 p.m. to say he was lost somewhere in Ecola State Park was located after his pinged phone indicated he was on the north side of the Tillamook Head Trail. Two deputies and a trooper climbed the trail from the Seaside trail head and located the hiker at the top. He was uninjured and given a courtesy ride back to his car, which was parked in the Indian Beach parking lot. Police said they were deployed on this job for four hours.

Combative situation

Troopers were dispatched to a residence in the 2000 block of S. Franklin Street in Seaside March 16 at 12:40 a.m., to assist Seaside police with a physical fight between some people renting a home for the week. Seaside police investigated an injury assault while OSP and Cannon Beach police worked
