

OBITUARIES

David Killion

Warrenton
May 15, 1940 — Nov. 20, 2021

David enjoyed fishing and hunting in this area, and in Eastern Oregon, with his family and friends. David is the son of David W. and Ruby Killion. His parents and two brothers, Bill and Bob, and two sisters, Dorothy and Loretta, preceded him in death. He leaves behind his wife, Norma; sister, Juanita; son, Robert; daughter, Brenda; a granddaughter; and many nieces, nephews, extended family and friends. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Pioneer Presbyterian Church, 33324 Patriot Way, Warrenton, OR., 97146.

David Killion, 81, passed away Nov. 20, 2021, at his home in Warrenton. David (Bud) was born May 15, 1940, in Astoria, and has lived in this area most of his life. He graduated from Warrenton High School in 1958. After serving in the U.S. Army, stationed in Germany, Bud did some traveling before settling down in this area for the rest of his life. David married his first wife, Regina, who had a son, Robert, and the couple had a daughter, Brenda. David worked at the Astoria Plywood Mill until 1980. After putting himself through insurance school, he started a successful career selling insurance in this area until retirement. After his first wife died, David married his second wife, Norma, in 1988, and they have enjoyed life together until his passing.

Christopher Brad Moore

Seaside
March 17, 1980 — Nov. 26, 2021

Christopher Brad Moore, 41, of Seaside, passed away on Nov. 26, 2021, from terminal brain cancer. Christopher Brad Moore was born in Garland, Texas, on March 17, 1980. After graduating from Kerens High School in Kerens, Texas, in 1998, he enlisted in the military, serving 21 years in the U.S. Air Force and Army National Guard, with a current rank of staff sergeant. He was also an active member of the Clatsop County Sons of Beaches 4x4 Motorsports Club, which is sometimes referred to as Saviors in the Sand, where he was well known for his passion for helping people stranded on the beach. Christopher Brad Moore is survived by his children, Samantha and Christopher "Michael" Moore; his parents, Jo Ann and Mike Dimick and Mark and Elizabeth Moore; and his grandparents, siblings, nieces and nephews, aunts and uncles, cousins and many close friends. Brad is loved by so many, and he will be missed dearly. The family wishes to express appreciation to everyone for all the prayers. A memorial service will be held on Saturday at 11 a.m. at Warrior Hall, Camp Rilea, 33168 Patriot Way in Warrenton. Military funeral honors will be held at the Dallas-Fort Worth National Cemetery in Texas at a later date. In lieu of flowers, please make contributions to the Wounded Warriors, American Legion Post 99 or Clatsop County Sons of Beaches 4x4 Motorsports Club.

One-car crash
Oregon State Police Nov. 9 at 2:18 p.m. received a report of a single-car crash on U.S. Highway 26 near milepost 14. A silver Volvo SUV was traveling east when it was caught up in torrential downpour; the driver thought the fog line indicated a two-lane highway and crossed the fog line, swiping the guard rail. The car continued traveling eastbound and spun into the roadway. TLC Towing removed the vehicle as they were already traveling on the roadway and came upon the crash. The SUV and its 88-year-old male driver, were brought to Forest Grove.

Car, deer collision
A car versus deer accident occurred Nov. 9 at 5:23 p.m. on U.S. Highway 101 and Surf Pines Lane; after hitting the deer, the driver continued and left the scene. State police say the deer was injured and required dispatch. ODOT was contacted to remove the deer. The driver who hit it did not contact the police.
Van, Volvo crash
A white Ram work truck Nov. 10 at 6:41 p.m. that failed to obey a traffic control device while entering U.S. Highway 101 from the Gearhart Loop was struck by a black Volvo traveling southbound. No injuries were reported and the Volvo was towed. The Ram work van was removed by the owner.

Crash report
A driver called state police Nov. 11 at 9:30 a.m. to report a crash that happened on U.S. Highway 26 near milepost 5. The victim, a 58-year-old woman, was heading east around 6 a.m. when a car traveling westbound crossed the center line and crashed into the driver's side of her car. The victim pulled over and waited for the other driver to stop, but they didn't. The victim continued on to her appointment and reported the crash several hours later. She couldn't describe the other car and had no further information.
Fell asleep at wheel
A 36-year-old Tigard woman was given a citation Nov. 16 at 3:58 p.m. on U.S. Highway 26 at milepost 7.5 after her car crashed, rolled over, and had to be towed. She admitted falling asleep behind the wheel and was not injured. ODOT assisted state police on scene with traffic safety as the Subaru was towed by Gary's Towing.
Veered off
A FedEx delivery driver told troopers he fell asleep behind the wheel Nov. 17 at 1:28 p.m. on U.S. Highway 26 at milepost 5.5. He left his lane of travel and veered off into a ditch, crashing into a tree. The 26-year-old driver was not injured. The delivery truck was towed by Gerlock Towing.

Failed to negotiate turn on Highway 101
An 81-year-old woman was evaluated on scene but not transported to the hospital when she crashed after failing to negotiate a turn into Greenwood Village on U.S. Highway 101 near milepost 11 at 5:19 p.m. on Nov. 19. Her car drove down an embankment and crashed into a tree. Her Honda Fit was towed from the scene by Classic Towing.
Failure to stay in lane
Richard Nelson Surgeon, 63 from Goodyear, Arizona, was arrested Nov. 20 at 5:01 p.m. on U.S. Highway 26 at milepost 4. A reporting party said a driver in a white truck pulling a trailer was not staying in their lane and was driving into oncoming traffic. Troopers located the described vehicle and a traffic stop was initiated.
