Susan Joan Adkison

Tualatin
Feb. 17, 1957 — Jan. 14, 2022

Susan Joan Adkison, of Tualatin, went to be with her Lord and Savior on Jan. 14, 2022, after a courageous, protracted battle with metastatic cancer and lung fibrosis. She died peacefully, surrounded by her family.

Susan was born Feb. 17, 1957, in Riverside, California, where her father was stationed with the U.S. Air Force. She grew up in the coastal community of Eureka, California.

After graduating from Eureka High School in 1975, she moved to New York to become a flight attendant for Pan American World Airways. She loved travel and gourmet foods and her time at Pan Am allowed her to see and experience much of the world.

Some years later, she returned to Eureka to complete an accounting degree. After graduating from Humboldt State University, she worked for Touche Ross in the Bay Area, and during that time obtained her certified public accountant license.

In 1996, Susan moved to Eugene to accept a position as a tax accountant with Coopers & Lybrand, later transitioning to corporate accounting with John Labatt Foods. That fall she met the love of her life, and husband of 33 years, Dan.

The couple married two years later, in 1988, and moved to Lake Oswego. They welcomed their daughter, Kathleen, in July 1991. Susan left the workforce a short time later and transitioned to being a full-time mom, something she referred to as her “best job ever.”

The couple moved to Tualatin in 1994, and were blessed to be surrounded by amazing friends and neighbors. They split time between their home in Tualatin and a lovingly restored beach cottage in Gearhart, built in 1906.

During the pandemic, they became full-time Gearhart residents. It was coming full circle for Susan, once again living in a vibrant oceanfront community, much like during her youth. She enjoyed the coast air, strolling the pristine beaches and watching for birds and whales as they migrated south for the winter.

Susan was a kind and gentle spirit, a person with boundless enthusiasm, and someone who invested her heart and soul into the care and well-being of her family and friends.

Susan’s love for her creator was evident throughout her life, and served as an example to all who knew and loved her.

Susan was preceded in death by her parents, Gregg and Joan Conlan; her sister, Amy Conlan; and sister-in-law, Susan Mumby.

She is survived by her husband, Dan Adkison; daughter, Kathleen Adkison; sister, Katy Conlan and her partner, Jeanne Tuft; brother-in-law, Tom Adkison; sister-in law, Joanna (Adkison) Small and her husband, Kelly Small; brother-in-law, Rick Zabel; nephew, Grant Small, and his wife, Bethany; niece, Allison (Small) Montgomery, and her husband, Nathan; niece, Scout Zabel; and a host of beloved great-nieces and nephews, extended family members, friends and neighbors.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that remembrances be made to the Pulmonary Fibrosis Foundation of Oregon or a charity of your choosing.

Susan’s celebration of life ceremony will be held at later date, to be announced.

Seaside man charged with encouraging child sexual abuse

A 41-year-old Seaside man was arrested at his home last Thursday and charged with multiple counts of encouraging child sexual abuse.

Detectives from the Seaside, Warrenton, and Cannon Beach police departments, as well as the Clatsop County Sheriff’s Office with joint assistance from Oregon and Washington’s Department of Justice and Internet Crimes Against Children investigators, conducted a search warrant at the residence of John M.

Dailey, 41.

Seaside detectives began building a case against Dailey when an Internet Crimes Against Children tip was received regarding him downloading and distributing child pornography using computers in his residence. The investigation resulted in a search warrant for Dailey’s residence for specific items related to child pornography to be seized and analyzed.

During the execution of the search warrant, evidence of nine counts of encouraging child sexual abuse 1 and nine counts of encouraging child sexual abuse 2 were seized and analyzed. With the assistance of Oregon Department of Human Services, two juvenile dependents were taken into protective custody.

Dailey was arrested for the charges without incident and transported to the Clatsop County Jail.

This remains an ongoing investigation with potential future pending charges.

NEWS NOTES

Seaside man sentenced to prison for kidnapping

A Seaside man was sentenced last Friday to more than six years in prison for kidnapping in the second degree and being a felon in possession of a firearm.

Troy Wayne Skinner, 33, received a 50-month sentence in Circuit Court for a kidnapping that occurred in April 2020. For the same case, he had already served 18 months for unlawful use of a weapon.

Skinner got an additional 24 months for the firearm charge from a December case.

Seaside man sentenced to prison for role in fatal crash

A Seaside man was sentenced to more than nine years in prison for his role in a 2021 crash that left a baby dead.

Rony Evelio Tomas-Garcia, 24, was sentenced in Circuit Court last Thursday to 110 months in prison for manslaughter in the second degree, assault in the second degree and driving under the influence of intoxicants.

On Feb. 15, 2021, Tomas-Garcia was driving on Ecola State Park Road with two passengers: Esperanza Martin-Ramirez and her daughter, Kenia, 3 1/2 months. The car went off the road and flipped over.

Kenia died at the scene. Martin-Ramirez suffered serious injuries.
