

Paulson earns Logger award

Kurt Paulson of St. Helens, was awarded the Columbia County Logger of the Year award for 1987 following completion of the Harvest Festival Logging Show at the county fair grounds on September 13.

The county title goes to the logger with the most points after competing in the four logging shows held in Columbia County - Clatskanie Heritage Days, County Fair, Vernonia Jamboree and Harvest Festival.

Paulson's total of 61 points barely edged out the 60 points scored by Greg Brewer of Vernonia. Also vying for the trophy were Jerry Rumbolz of Vernonia and Greg Paulson of St. Helens, with scores in the high fifties.

Hundreds of quilts tempted buyers and browsers at St. Mary's Church annual quilt fair.

United Way kicks off campaign

The local United Way campaign was kicked off September 26th at halftime of the Vernonia High School football game against Lutheran, when Marv Meyers booted the ball after Tony Dettmers made the kickoff presentation.

Volunteers will be contacting businesses and individuals for donations to the Columbia County United Way, which aids many local and county-wide services.

Local volunteers, led by co-chairpersons Jim Tierney and Kathy Denckla, include

Lorraine Mercer, Marian Peterson, Carol Davis, Gertrude Schalock representing the Vernonia Senior Center, CiCi Bell representing the Women's Resource Center, and Cindy Baker, who is on loan from Farmers & Merchants Bank.
