

Sen. Dukes will speak at clinic dedication

State Senator Joan Dukes will be the speaker at a dedication ceremony for the recently opened Vernonia Health Center, on August 18

Former pastor will be at Christian Church

Dr. Paul Clark will be speaking at all services on Sunday, July 29, at the Vernonia Christian Church. Clark is a former minister of the local church and is now the president of Osaka Bible Seminary in Osaka, Japan.

A potluck reception will held in the fellowship hall at 12:30 p.m. following the morning service. Friends are welcome to attend.

Tutor needed to help adults learn to read

A volunteer tutor is needed in the Vernonia area to assist two adults with reading, spelling and writing, using the Laubach Literacy method. Training in the program is provided.

Interested persons may call Angie Maynard, chairperson of the Columbia County Council, Laubach Literacy, at 397-0427.

at 1 p.m.

Open house will also be held the same day from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

The new clinic is located at the corner of North and Grant Streets, behind the MiniMart.

Pam DuVall, Matt Hillhouse wed

Pamela Rae DuVall and Matthew P. Hillhouse, formerly of Vernonia, were united in marriage on May 25, 1990.

They were honored at a wedding reception on June 9, at the home of the bride's parents, Lee and Addie DuVall of Vernonia. The groom is the son of Chris Johnson, also of Vernonia.

The new Mrs. Hillhouse is employed at Allan-Falk in Beaverton. The groom is attending I.T.T. Technical Institute and is also employed at Viking Freight Way in Portland.

They are making their home in Portland.

DuVall, who graduated with Highest Honors in March, earned a Bachelor of Applied Science in Automated Manufacturing Technology. He is the son of Lee and Addie DuVall of Vernonia.

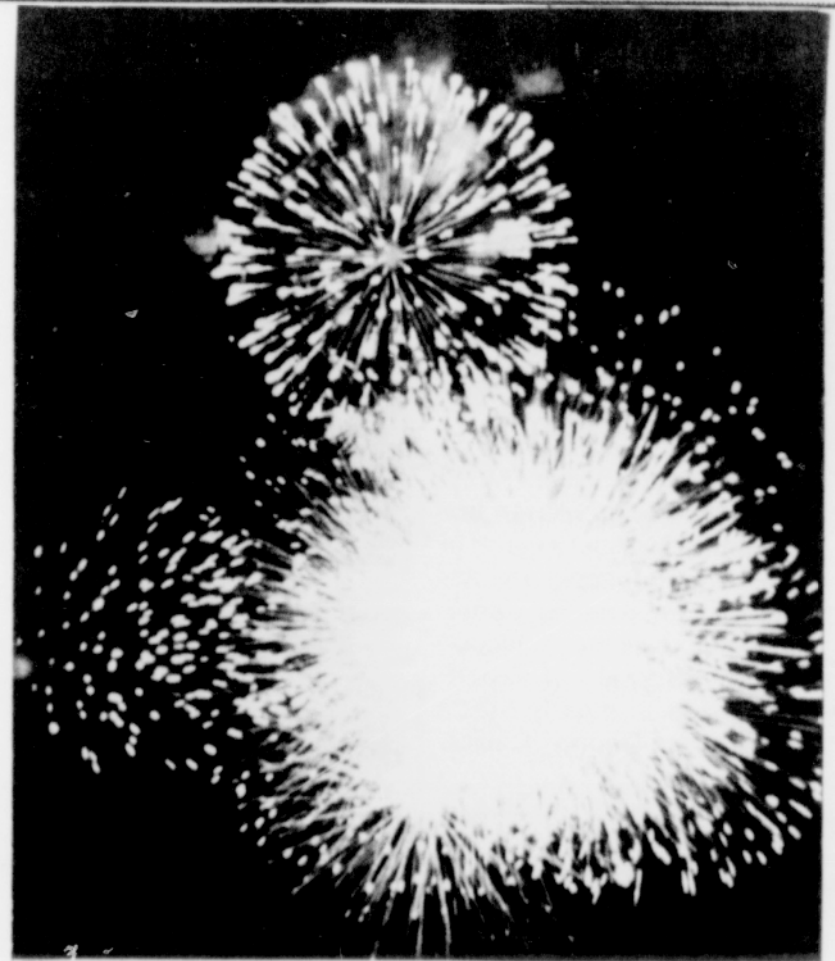

Ceballos graduated with Honors on June 22. He also earned a Bachelor of Applied Science in Automated Manufacturing Technology. He is the son of Sam Ceballos of Vernonia.

Welcome Additions

Rachel Myrtle Rode

Rachel Myrtle Rode was born July 4, 1990 at Bess Kaiser Hospital in Portland. She weighed 8 pounds, 13 ounces and was 20" long.

She has joined her parents, Emil and Phillis Rode, and siblings, Rebecca and James, at the family home in Vernonia.

Fireworks lit up the night sky at the annual Vernonia Fourth of July celebration. Nearly canceled because of lack of funds, an all-out effort by local people made the show possible.
