The Fast Draw shootout, still in its formative stage as a Jamboree main event, attracted 23 shooters this year. Partially supported by the Jamboree committee, the event is sponsored by local residents Ray and Clara Thielke.

Cash prizes and trophies in the men's division, went to first place winner Dan Boyd of Burnaby, B.C., second was Dennis Robinson, also of Burnaby, third was Jim Von Feldt of Portland and fourth to Steve Von Feldt, also of Portland.

In the women's division, Chris Yablonski of Surrey, B.C., took first, second was Jane Austin of Portland, and third went to Susie Von Feldt.

In Billy the Kid competition, teenager Eric Mernickle of Chilliwack, B.C., placed first; Mel Whittington of Vancouver, Washington, was second.

The tennis tournament, a first time activity, didn't draw as many people as organizers John Ragner and Dean Julian anticipated, but it was successful, nevertheless. Results were unavailable at this writing.

Dennis Mattinen earned the title of All-Around Logger in the popular logging show, while Greg Paulson received the Sportsmanship Award, according to show chairman Tony Hyde.

First place winners in the individual events were as follows:

- Pole Falling - Jim Martin
- Burling - Jim Martin
- Boomstick Run - Michael George

- Pole Walk - Dennis Mattinen
- Pole Walk & Snip - Albert Bernal
- Steeplechase - Jeff Skirvin
- Kids' Choker Setting - Dustin Thompson
- Choker Setting - Dennis Mattinen
- Women's Hard Hat Toss - Lee Walker
- Unlimited Bucking - Jeff Skirvin
- Women's Bucking - Jennifer White
- Factory Rep Bucking - Alan Corun, Sachs-Dolmar
- Working Saw 5-6 - Les Skirvin
- Working Saw 4-5 - Jeff Skirvin
- Axe Throw - Mike George
- Kids' Axe Throw - Tommy Walker.

When this ultralite flew in to Vernonia during Jamboree, the pilot was keeping a faulty windshield in place by holding it with one hand while he used the other for flying.

GOVERNMENT SPENDING AND OUR TAX DOLLARS SOLUTIONS . . . NOT JUST MORE TALK - PART 2!

Most Oregonians want a financially prudent state government that is accountable, maintains sensible priorities, and implements policies quickly once established. We are all concerned about the way state government spends our tax dollars.

Your reaction to the following ideas will be appreciated.

#1. ESTABLISH FUNDING PRIORITIES FOR OREGON!

For far too long "state government" has received priority funding. New government offices and a $17 million parking structure have been financed while funding for critical needs in education, and crime control received the leftovers. Aid for our cities and counties, receives little attention in spite of increased demands for services, reduction in revenues, and continued unfunded state mandates.

I recommend that the legislature resolve to spend our tax dollars first on areas of critical need. Funding education, controlling crime, and reduction in our property tax burden by support for local governments must take priority. After fulfilling those needs the balance of our tax dollars can address support for state government, and other areas.

Your response please: I agree. I do not agree.

#2. ACCOUNTABILITY AND CONTROL OF STATE GOVERNMENT!

New programs usually begin with the best of intentions. Once established however, they all too often become just another unnecessary bureaucratic parasite on our tax dollars. Endlessly, we read about out of control spending, poor administration, or excuses for lack of performance because of a lack of money. We need results from state government, not more excuses.

I propose that ALL government programs and agencies justify their continued existence based on the present need for their services, their results, and the management of their operation. A performance audit would be constitutionally conducted every two years for the first eight years of their existence; followed by audits every four years. Existing financial audits would continue.

Your response please: I agree. I do not agree.

#3. REVISIONS IN OREGON'S LOTTERY!

The Oregon Lottery is governed by a board of commissioners and a director appointed by the governor and confirmed by the Senate. Presently Oregon's legislature has little control over their operations.

As an quasi autonomous agency the Oregon Lottery can, and has done pretty much as they wish. That includes recent proposals for building a multi-million dollar building for their home office in Salem. Reports of faltering sales and funding cut backs further enhance the need for change.

First, I propose removing the statutory exemption for the Oregon Lottery, and placing the agency under direct surveillance by the Oregon Legislature. Their present board of commissioners would be maintained to oversee operations and management.

Your response please: I agree. I do not agree.

Secondly, I propose establishing at the county level, a local economic development commission, composed of elected citizens. All lottery proceeds would be equitably distributed to counties for economic development. Local commissions assume the sole responsibility for awarding project grants that would have the greatest economic impact on their local area.

Your response please: I agree. I do not agree.

Dear Friends,

I care about people, and I care about Oregon's future. As a candidate for State Representative of District 2, I am taking positive steps to create a solid agenda that will bring meaningful changes for the 90's and beyond.

This advertisement is the second in a series that will explore solutions to many of our state's critical problems. Throughout the summer I will continue to ask for your ideas, responses, and help in refining these thoughts into a sound workable plan of action.

The reaction to our first series of solutions (on Education and Property Taxes) was very enlightening. We are encouraged that so many of you took the time to share your ideas. Many strong opinions and new ideas were expressed, and will be used to enhance our proposals for the next legislative session.

By continuing to work together we can make state government more responsive to our needs. Your reactions, ideas, and continued support for our campaign will make a difference in the quality of life in Oregon.

Sincerely,

Mike Maki
