

4-H members earn their way to Oregon State Fair

4-H leaders, parents and community supporters can be proud of local youth, according to Doug Hart, OSU Extension Agent for 4-H in Columbia County.

"They did very well in the 4-H division of the 1990

Columbia County Fair and have very qualified projects going into competition at the State Fair in Salem," he said. This year's state fair started August 17, in Salem, and will end on September 3.

The following Nehalem Val-

Local woman captures baking trophy at Columbia County Fair

It's not only 4-H members who win prizes at the Columbia County Fair. Janice Fisher, a Vernonia baker, walked away with the High Point Trophy and enough ribbons to redecorate a good-sized room.

Fisher's entries placed first in competition for German Chocolate Cheesecake, Jelly Roll, Whole Wheat Bread, Carrot Walnut Cake, Blueberry Muffins, Walnut Pie, Banana Split Cupcakes, Pineapple Upside-down Cake and Coconut Kiss Cookies.

Second place ribbons went to Fisher's Oatmeal Cookies, Peanut Butter Cookies, Walnut Volcano Cookies and a Bread Basket.

She won third place for her Walnut Muffins, Sugar Cookies and Brownies.
