

Golf tournament is Serafin benefit

Bob Sargent and Greg Schaumberg, organizers of the Dave Serafin Benefit Golf Tournament, report that the tournament was a great success, raising over $3,000 - in spite of temperatures in the upper 90's.

The 18 hole, four-person scramble attracted 22 mixed foursomes.

Winning low net was the team of Chris Cota, Bill Cota, Jerry Budge and Steve Warren. Low gross honors went to the team of Fred Fulmer, Bob Zavales, Bill Worley and Billy Worley.

In the Women's division, Marilyn Pedersen won the award for closest to the pin. Vera Cole had the longest drive and Vesta King made the longest putt.

Jim Evans was the men's winner for closest to the pin.

Ray Foster had the longest drive and Ken Bateman made the longest putt.

The putting contest was won by Channel 6 newsman Wayne Faligowski.

Celebrities play golf to aid medical center fund raising efforts

A celebrity golf tournament is scheduled for September 29 to benefit the non-profit Vernonia Health Center.

The 5-person scramble will have a shotgun start at 9 a.m. at the Vernonia Golf Course, preceded by a celebrity auction the night before the tournament. A buffet dinner at Airport Park will follow the close of play.

The entry fee will be $20 per person or $80 per team, plus green fees of $13 for 18 holes.

Deadline for entries will be Sept. 22. For more information or for entry forms, call the Vernonia Health Center, 429-9191, or write to P.O. Box 98, Vernonia, OR 97064.

Political golf finds a home in Vernonia

Buying politicians isn't usually discussed publically, but that will all change on September 8 when Vernonia's first Political Golf Tournament will pit the Donkeys vs. the Elephants in a political fund raiser designed with golfers in mind.

The five-player scramble will allow 4-player teams to buy their fifth player - the politician of their choice - at an auction of politicians prior to the tournament at the Vernonia Golf Course.

A continental breakfast will be provided during the auction of politicians at 7:30 a.m. Tournament play will commence at 9 a.m. and the day's activities will end with a steak dinner.

Registration fee of $50 includes the entry fee, green fees, breakfast and dinner. For an entry form, call the golf course at 429-6811.

Proceeds of the tournament will go to both parties.
