Washington Grade School awards

Recipients were named for three special year-end awards at Washington Grade School.

Brian Anderson received the James T. Johns Award, for the student who has shown the most improvement and growth from seventh to eighth grades.

Justin Ward and Jennifer Young were each awarded the Paul A. Gordon Memorial Trophy, which goes to one eighth grade boy and one eighth grade girl each year, based on academic achievement, attitude, participation, leadership and citizenship.

Tarah Pond and Peter Schmidlin were named Outstanding Scholars, as the students with highest grade point average throughout the school, at the end of the third quarter. Pond was in the eighth and Schmidlin was in the seventh grade.
