

Four-year journalism scholarship available for high school senior

East Oregonian Publishing Co. is accepting applications for the Merle R. Chessman Journalism Scholarship to the University of Oregon. Deadline for applications is Friday, April 24. The applications are available from Jacqueline Brown, human resource director at the East Oregonian.

The Merle R. Chessman Journalism Scholarship pays tuition for a journalism major at the University of Oregon.

The scholarship is open to applicants within the circulation areas of the East Oregonian, The Daily Astorian, the Chinook Observer, the Blue Mountain Eagle and the Valley Herald. The grant is named after Merle Chessman, long-time editor of the Astorian-Budget and member of the Oregon Legislature.

According to Brown, the present recipient of the scholarship is graduating this spring, so the grant will be available starting with fall term this year.

Anyone interested in the grant may obtain an application from Brown by calling her at 1-800-522-0255, or by writing to the East Oregonian, P.O. Box 1089, Pendleton, OR 97801.

Vernonia kindergarten registration/screening set

Vernonia kindergarten registration and screening will be Thursday, April 28, in the west basement of Washington Grade School from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Children must be 5-years old on or before Sept. 1, 1994, in order to be eligible. Parents must bring their children's birth certificates and updated immunization records to registration.

Vernonia School District and Vernonia Head Start staff will handle the registration and screening. No physical examinations are required.

It is important to attend this screening, school officials emphasized, because it will not be given again.

Parents who are unable to attend registration, are asked to call the Lincoln Grade School office, 429-7941, and give the names of children who will not be pre-registered. Questions regarding registration or kindergarten may be directed to the same number.
