VHS saxophonist earning multiple music honors

Molly Skidmore, a Vernonia High School Junior, has been invited to join the Oregon Ambassadors of Music on a European concert tour this summer, with performances scheduled in sever countries.

This year's tour is the first such honor group to participate from the State of Oregon. It includes a select band of 96 student musicians and an 82 member choir recommended and selected from Oregon high schools.

Skidmore, recommended by her V.H.S. band teacher, Bob Isted, has excelled in her performance on the baritone saxophone. For the past two years she has been selected to play in the Lower Columbia College High School Honor Band and, in May, will participate in Forest Grove at the University of Pacific's "Music in May" concert.

The Oregon Ambassadors of Music have scheduled concerts in England, France, Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Austria, Italy and Germany. The sixteen-day tour affords sufficient time for the students to visit many historic and culturally significant sites in each country.

Skidmore's musical achievements do not stand alone. She is also a National Honors student and includes athletic skills in her growing list of accomplishments.

She is the daughter of Fred and Diana Skidmore of Vernonia.
