Vernonia Police hiring two officers

With the resignation of Vernonia Police Officer Jerry Bartolomucci, Vernonia will soon be hiring two new officers.

Bartolomucci has been hired by the Tigard Police Department. His resignation was effective June 26.

The department had already been seeking one officer for a position funded mostly by the federal COPS grant. At this time, background checks are being done on six applicants, out of twelve that were interviewed.

Although the City of Banks and the Coalition for Responsible Growth have reached some agreement, CRG continues to protest continuing construction at South Banks Estates.

Mayor Crippen expressed concern about conditions

Mayor Mike Crippen expressed concern for property owners living along the street. He noted there is no curb and visitors may unknowingly park on private land. Orlowski and city planner K.J. Won will seek grants to help pay for the improvements. Other areas in the community are also designated for major resurfacing this summer.

A public hearing on July 12, at 7:30 in City Hall will explore the possibility of either contracting for police service or reinstating a police department. Preliminary research has been underway and options will be presented. The public hearing was set to receive input from the citizenry of Banks.

In other business, the council:

- Unanimously approved curtailing unauthorized parking on city property; Mayor Crippen was authorized to take action.

- Heard the second reading of a resolution instituting a systems development charge. The final reading will be at the next regular council meeting.
