

Arts & Crafts show will feature the work of many local artists

People interested in arts and crafts will enjoy visiting the Jamboree Art Show at the Art and Cultural Center, 847 Jefferson Avenue.

The exhibit will be open on Friday and Saturday from noon until 7 p.m., on Sunday from noon until 5.

This year's exhibit will include a retrospective division for works previously shown and another for youths through 18 years of age. All youth participants will receive a merit award.

Entries by adult artists, will be judged by "peoples' choice" with all viewers given the opportunity to vote for their favorite among of the art and fine crafts on display.

While no specific schedule for demonstrations has been announced, there will be demonstrations arranged on a random basis, throughout the show.

Inquiries may be directed to Beverly Berkholz at 429-6300, or Barbara Sturdevant, 429-6696.

Worship service features music

Open air temple appeals to Jamboree visitors and locals alike.

Visitors to Vernonia are invited to share in the interdenominational activities arranged by the Vernonia Ministerial Association during the Friendship Jamboree.

Saturday night at 7 p.m. a musical concert featuring Gentle Ben McGuire and his choir will be presented at the Vernonia High School athletic stadium.

McGuire and his wife, Bridget have visited Vernonia once before. Their performance blends their unique sense of humor with upbeat vocal selections that will keep you clapping and laughing.

On Sunday morning the McGuires will share an outdoor interdenominational worship service on the lawn between the Evangelical and Baptist churches, on "A" Street, at 10:30 a.m.

There will be no admission charge for either of these events, but a free will offering will be taken to help cover expenses.

Artists and crafters present a grand array of creativity.
