

County picks Detloff for undersheriff

Henry "Pat" Detloff, chief deputy in the Clackamas County Sheriffs department was the unanimous choice of the Columbia County Board of Commissioners to serve as temporary undersheriff in Columbia County.

The county has been without its top law officer since Sheriff George Hulit resigned last month after being convicted of three misdemeanor charges.

Detloff will serve until the end of this year as a "loaned executive" from Clackamas County and will remain on the Clackamas County payroll, with his salary reimbursed by Columbia County. Detloff has 22 years in the Clackamas Sheriff's department.

A permanent replacement for Hulit must be chosen by the voters in November. There will be no primary election for the non-partisan position.

Cooking Corner by Gladys

By Gladys Sharar

Everyone hears hammers and saws at work all around Vernonia, many of them wielded by the Mennonites who have come from across the country to give a hand to our hard-hit community. I truly think they are God-sent.

We also see Mennonite ladies in the kitchen at the Evangelical Bible Church, busily preparing three meals a day for 30 to 35 hard workers. The day I stopped by, there were four ladies busy preparing dinner: Lillian Yoder from Indiana, Martha Yoder and Barbie Zook from New York and Mary Ellen Wagler from Tennessee. Here are some recipes they are sharing with us.

Mennonite cooks Lillian Yoder, left, and Verna Hostetler prepare pizza for their working crew of 25-30 men. Yoder, from Goshen, Ind., has been here a month. Hostetler, from Linn, Missouri, has been here since March 5th.
