

Competitive drivers and exciting action at Rivercity

By Mike Weber

For the fourth consecutive week, there's a new leader in the Columbia County Racing Association sportsman division, as Paul Liner of St. Helens took over first place following his main event win on June 15, at River City Speedway. Portland's Matt Sayre took the checkered flag in the street stock feature and Sue Cardwell of St. Helens, led from start to finish as she captured the women's division 15-lap main event. In the Pro-4 West Racing Association, club president Tim Ferrando of Salem won the 25-lap main in the modified series 1996 debut at the Columbia County Fairgrounds.

Over 80 cars participated in the CCRA program and the next race on June 22 will include the Washington Econo Sprint Car Organization (WESCO) in the first of three scheduled events at the speedway this year. Qualifying begins at 3:30 p.m. followed by racing at 6 p.m. and for further information call the speedway office at (503) 397-2393.

PETER L. LARDY

Peter Louis Lardy, 43, Buxton, died June 17, 1996, at his home, after a brief illness. Recitation of the Rosary will be at 7:00 p.m. tonight, June 19, at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Roy. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated June 20 at 1:00 p.m. at St. Francis of Assisi, with celebrant Fr. Ron Milligan, Priest Moderator of St. Mary Catholic Church in Vernonia. Burial rites and interment will be at Buxton Cemetery.

Family and friends are invited to attend a reception in the basement of St. Francis School in Roy, immediately following the cemetery rites.

Mr. Lardy was born March 3, 1953, in Hillsboro to Melvin L. and Gladdean (Dick) Lardy. He was raised in Buxton, attended Buxton Elementary School and graduated from Banks High School.

He married Darla Norman in 1974 in Hillsboro. They made their home in Buxton. He was employed by Northwest Energy Service in Rainier until illness forced him to retire.

Mr. Lardy was a member of the Catholic Church and attended St. Francis of Assisi Church.

Survivors beside his wife and parents include two sons, Melvin J. and Louis P., both of Buxton; three brothers, Melvin of Sherwood, Lawrence of Buxton and Michael of Banks; two sisters Nancy Lazott of Rainier and Joan Burnsed of Vernonia; many nieces and nephews.

The family suggests that remembrances be contributions to a charity of one's choice.

Fuiten-Rose Chapel is in charge of arrangements.
