

St. Helens Book Shop designates the Women's Resource Center for proceeds of book

Columbia County Women's Resource Center will be the recipient of proceeds from the sale of Bernadette Crepeau's 1997 City of Bargains book. The St. Helens Book Shop is donating its profits from this highly useable guide to approximately 200 Portland metro-area shops. Included in this guide are resale, thrift, little-known factory outlets, discount houses, and even a well-known on-going garage sale. Columbia County bargain/resale shops are well represented. The book contains money saving coupons and tips on rescuing those treasures that others might pass over. Mrs. Crepeau originally started compiling this information as a project to raise money for the area's homeless. However, the popularity and success of the book has lead to this third up-date. Women's Resource Center is grateful to Luanne Kreutzer of the St. Helens Book Shop for this support.
