Eight Vernonia School District music students have been chosen to participate in a performance of the District III Honor Bands at Pacific University on Saturday, Jan. 24 at 7:30 p.m. The bands will be under the direction of Dr. Tuttle of Portland State University and Dr. Berge Passes of Pacific University.

Representing the high school, will be Andy Waltz on percussion, Brian Robertson on tenor sax, Megan Zimmerman on flute and Jason Landers on alto sax.

On the junior high school level, students selected are Darcy Kunkel on flute, Shawn Hillier on alto sax, Brass Sears on trumpet and Charles Gendron on clarinet.

Logger wrestling (continued)

Josh Landers won third place by pinning his Wahtonka opponent, and George Vandehey also finished third.

Craig Enneberg missed the tournament due to a bout with the flu.

Denny Peters, wrestling at 135, won his first match by a fall. In his second match, Peters lost in sudden-death overtime, a match described by Brookins as a "pure-guts inspirational effort".

"Vernonia wrestling is on the map," said Brookins, "and we're continuing to improve."

Jan. 7 Logger wrestlers participated in a tournament at Knappa. This non-scoring match-up included Nestucca and Seaside High School's junior varsity wrestlers.

"The wrestlers were put into four-man brackets," said Brookins, "and they wrestled away."

Johnson and Waltz were undefeated in two matches apiece.

Winning two out of three matches were Vandehey and Landers. Both won their matches by falls, Landers' only loss was to last years' state champion.

Jesse Templin (152) recorded one fall, and is improving greatly, according to Coach Brookins.
