

Smith (continued)

The appointment was effective January 15. Judge Smith has been Columbia County's District Court Judge for 17 years, since his first election in 1980. Judge Smith has also handled cases as a Circuit Court Judge pro tem since 1983.

The 1997 Legislature decided to separate the 19th Judicial District, which consisted of Columbia, Clatsop and Tillamook Counties, into two separate districts. Columbia County remains as the 19th Judicial District, while Clatsop and Tillamook counties now comprise the 18th Judicial District.

The January 15 date coincided with consolidation of the Circuit and District Courts. The State of Oregon now has only one level of trial court, the Circuit Court, and Columbia County has three Circuit Courts instead of two Circuit Courts and one District Court.

Judge Smith, as Presiding Judge, will plan, implement and oversee the Circuit Court's policy, calendaring system, administration, personnel and budget, in addition to performing his normal duties as a judge.

The public will not initially see any changes while a number of administrative functions are being consolidated. It is also necessary to remodel one of the courtrooms/jury rooms to handle a twelve person jury before an efficient calendaring system can be implemented. Judge Smith has been working with the Columbia County Board of Commissioners for a year to coordinate the remodeling.

Marijuana found in Vernonia raid

The Columbia County Enforcement Team (CENT) and Vernonia Police searched a residence at 1363 E. Knott Street, Vernonia, on Dec. 15, and found 69 marijuana plants growing in a garage. The plants were seized along with sophisticated growing equipment.

Michael N. Bayles and Barbara M. Husman, both 25, reportedly were renting the property. Reports have been sent to the Columbia County District Attorney's office.

Two other individuals, who fled the scene in a vehicle when the officers arrived, were stopped by Vernonia officers. A handgun was retrieved from the vehicle and reports were sent to the district attorney.
