

Lady Loggers lose to Warrenton 57-23; beat Neah-Kah-Nie, 50-26

Vernonia High School girls varsity basketball team couldn't handle Warrenton's Lady Warriors Jan. 15, losing at home 57-23.

"They outplayed us," said coach Jim Krahn. "We allowed them to control the game."

The game was scoreless until 4:38 in the first quarter. Only seconds later Ellie Prpich left the court with an ankle injury.

Maria Nicolau-Ferregut gave the Lady Loggers their first lead, 5-4 and Vernonia ended the first quarter with a two point lead.

Then Warrenton took the lead and stayed there, despite Vernonia's efforts to regain control. Halftime score, 26-13.

Prpich re-entered the game in the third quarter, but was pulled by Coach Krahn less than two minutes later.

Warrenton dictated a fast and physical second half, pulling ahead decisively.

High Scores: Bridget Titus, 8 points, Maria Nicolau-Ferregut, 5.

The Lady Loggers hosted Neah-Kah-Nie Jan 8 and won, 50-26.

"Physically we had the advantage," said Krahn. "Heightwise and in shooting ability."

Though the game was fast-paced from the start, with the Lady Loggers running some tight, fluid plays, scoring was sluggish until Erica Hobart sank a three-pointer.

In spite of Vernonia's height advantage, the Lady Pirates were tough on defense, for a first quarter score of 12-6.

The Lady Loggers worked the ball inside and racked up points late in the second quarter while keeping Neah-Kah-Nie shooting from outside. Teamwork and patience led Vernonia into a halftime lead of 21-11.

Denise Titus opened the second half with a three-pointer, and Vernonia continued to run the court, defending fiercely and shooting accurately. Third quarter score, 37-20.

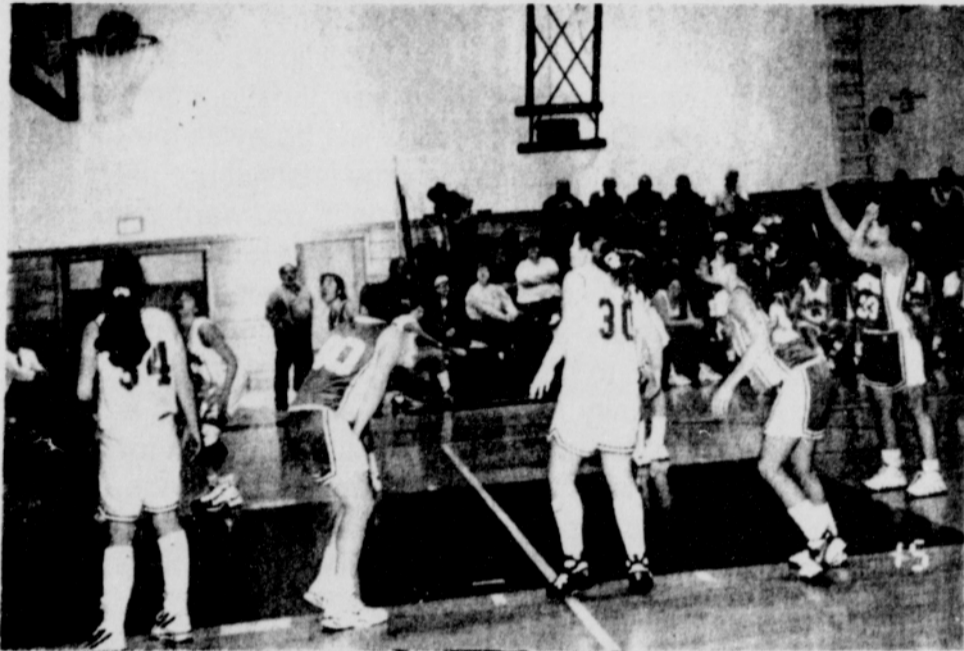

In the final quarter, down 40-20, Neah-Kah-Nie's Tylee Goddard stepped up defensively, forcing a turnover or two. Prpich dominated in the final minutes, turning her offensive rebounds into points and stealing a Neah-Kah-Nie pass.

"In the second half we got into the flow offensively," said Krahn.

High Scores: Ellie Prpich, 16 points, Erica Hobart, 10.

The Lady Loggers travelled to Alsea Jan. 6, and were beaten 49-37, although a faulty scoreboard read 43-37 at the end of the game.

High Scores: Prpich, 21 points, Nicolau-Ferregut and Allie Krahn, 5 points apiece.

Vernonia Loggers (l-r) Bryan Dinger, Jacob Shetler, Andy Sook and Jason Busch battle the Warrenton Warriors.
