Loggers schedule three diamond frays

Logger baseball, after their dazzling opener March 16, hit a snag in the form of scheduling mix-ups, which led to the cancellation of their trip to Gaston March 20.

Vernonia played at Portland Lutheran yesterday (March 31) and will head to Corbett April 3.

A much-anticipated game against Knappa's Loggers will take place in Vernonia on April 7 at 4 p.m. April 9, Vernonia's Loggers host Neah-Kah-Nie at 4:30 p.m.

VHS girls start slowly in preseason softball

The Lady Loggers' March 27th softball game at Knappa was cancelled due to players' family plans for Spring Break. Vernonia didn't have enough girls to field a team, explained Coach Randy Shockey.

Vernonia played a double-header at Gaston March 25. Both games were five innings and mixed players from the varsity and junior varsity squads.

Game one ended in a 13-6 loss for Vernonia.

The Lady Loggers led 6-3 at the end of two innings, thanks to Lina Dubuc's double, and singles from Abby Pond and Heather Sargent.

"We're hitting the ball well," said Shockey. "In the third, their pitcher found her control and hit the strike zone better."

Nicole Koch pitched for Vernonia, allowing seven hits, striking out three and walking three.

game two, but it wasn't enough to pull ahead of Gaston, 14-10.

Kirsten Hyde, Pond and Koch each took a turn on the mound for the Lady Loggers.

Vernonia's softballers opened the season at home, also against Gaston, March 17. Twenty-three fielding errors hurt Vernonia and they lost, 24-18.

"This was their first time on the field," said Shockey. "I'm pleased with their on-field learning and adjusting to their positions."

Heather Sargent went three-for-three against Gaston's fast pitcher, logging a single, double, triple and six RBIs.

Pond's base-stealing finesse turned her single into a score for Vernonia.

The next four games are scheduled at home: April 1 vs. Valley Catholic, April 3 vs. Damas Christian, April 7 vs. Knappa, April 9 vs. Neah-Kah-Nie.

Jayvee girls struggle

Vernonia's junior varsity softball team faced St. Helens March 20, and lost 16-2.

Christie Brown, a sophomore, pitched her first game, striking out four, walking two and allowing seven hits.

Tegan Jones hit a homer with no one on base in the third and went 2-for-3 at the plate against St. Helens.

Large turnout for WGS track team

Washington Grade School track coach Rena Titus and assistant coach Clint Kelly are preparing 30 seventh and eighth graders for the 1998 Track and Field season.

"We have a good group of kids," said Titus. "Right now we're working to finalize which events each of the kids will compete in."

WGS' team has a lot to choose from, nine running and four field events are included in this year's competition.

WGS Track & Field Roster:

Jessica Allison, JP Allison, Kyle Cota, Daniel Borquez, Candice Dalebrou, Sahson Dekorti, Kendra DeWitt, Luke Ellis, Charles Gendron, Sarah Grebenc, Charlie Hanson, Kristal Hayes, Shawn Hillyer, Audrey Looney, Lydia Looney, JJ Malnerich, Alicia Normand, Kim Normand, George Owens, Rose Peets, Shawn Robertson, Keith Rondo, Brass Sears, Trisha Titus, Jason Vaughn, Casey Waltz, Josh Ward.

Manager, Stacy Lennen.

Loggers eager for more links play

Logger golfers faced Banks and Molalla at Quail Valley March 18, for the Banks Invitational. Individual scores and those from the nine two-man teams were kept.

"We're starting this season better than we ended the season last year," said coach James Brookins.

The Vernonia pair of Jon Mulleda and Bryan Dinger finished fourth. Mulleda's 84 put him in the fourth place slot, individually, as well.

The remainder of the Loggers were "tightly packed" behind Matt Brookins' 101.

Upcoming competition: April 1 vs. Valley Catholic at Vernonia Golf Course; April 7 vs. Scappoose and Astoria @ Astoria; April 14 vs. Banks and Seaside @ Gearhart.
