Justice Court

Correction

Information in the Vernonia Justice Court report of December 21, 1999, was in error: Zack L. Kelly, 20, Vernonia, did not receive a suspension of his Oregon Driver License when he pleaded guilty to MIP. He will retain his license as long as he complies with Court requirements.

A telephone line came down across Scappoose-Vernonia Hwy., requiring a detour until it could be repaired. See Oregon State Police Report for Jan. 15.

Oregon State Police

Jan. 15 -- Debra D. Peterson, Vernonia, lost control of her 1991 Toyota pickup and hit a telephone pole at the junction of Hwy. 47 and Vernonia-Scappoose Hwy. when she moved toward the shoulder of Hwy. 47 and hit loose gravel while trying to avoid a Suburban that was crowding the center line. There were no injuries. The phone line was down across the intersection so a logging road was opened to provide a detour around the intersection.

Jan. 17 -- Cheryl D. McNeill was cited for failing to perform the duties of a driver in an accident after she struck and damaged a deer fence belonging to Marvin O. Meyer at 57165 Nehalem River Hwy. The crash occurred Jan. 11. According to the Oregon State Police, McNeill called a tow truck but made no attempt to contact Meyer about the property damage.
