

Oregon Air Fair plans special activities at September events

Oregon Air Fair, which is now quartered in Albany, will be held Sept. 16-17, 2000, at the Linn County Fair & Expo Center.

The Oregon Air Fair features aircraft displays, speakers, vendor exhibits, pilot and mechanic seminars, a hands-on area for kids of all ages, and a flight demonstration of state-of-the-art model aircraft. Its new location next to the Albany airport will permit more aircraft to be on display during the weekend. The hands-on youth activities area will be open for organized school groups Friday, Sept. 15. Over 700 students from local schools are already scheduled to attend. Among other attractions, Air Fair organizers plan to bring in displays from the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry (OMSI), Tillamook Air Museum, Evergreen Air Museum, and other Oregon museums.

For more information about Oregon Air Fair, contact Jerry Eames or Marilyn Lorange of the Oregon Department of Aviation at (503) 378-4880, or toll free in Oregon and Washington, 1-800-874-0102, or look on the department's website, at <www.odot.state.or.us/aero>.
