

Horn second in local show, but earns Columbia County Logger title

Jim Horn, of Longview, clearly outscored the competition to become 1999 Columbia County Logger of the Year.

Horn had already accumulated 63 points in three logging shows at Clatskanie, Rainier and the Columbia County Fair and, at the final show of the season in Vernonia, added 13 more for a total of 76 points.

Kevin Hofenbredl, of Grand

Ronde, and Greg Brewer, Clatskanie, tied for second place with 34 points each. Hofenbredl and Brewer each missed one of the four county logging shows.
