

Quartet featured as Jamboree worship service moves to new location

The quartet "Rescue" will be featured at the Jamboree Worship Service. Rescue members are Jason Overstreet, Jason Pearce, Josh McKenney and Jason McKenney.

Let your mutt's "bad hair day" show

The Jamboree Mutt Show will be held on Saturday, August 5 at 2:00 p.m. at Anderson Park. There is a suggested $2 donation, which will benefit local nonprofit organizations.

Categories in the show include best bad hair day, most like owner, best costume, best trick, best behaved, biggest, smallest and cutest puppy (for dogs under one year). Any breed or mixed breed is eligible for the event. The handlers must be youth through the age of 16. Assistance may be provided to small children, and dog owners who have children showing their dogs may also help.

Ribbons will be awarded through third place in each category. All participants will receive a ribbon for participating. All dogs must be leashed, and if they are ill-tempered, they should be muzzled.

This year's interdenominational Jamboree worship service will feature a performance by the contemporary Christian quartet, Rescue. The service will be August 6 at 10:30 a.m. on the lawn between Vernonia High School and Washington Grade School.

Rescue is the fastest growing contemporary Christian quartet in the Northwest. With two CDs released in the last year and appearances on Northwest television shows, as well as a strong presence in churches all over the Northwest, the group has catapulted into a ministry that strives to encourage and challenge.

Residents and visitors are all invited to hear these four young men proclaim the name of the Lord in a fresh, new way. Check out their website for samples and more information at <www.rescueministries.com>
