

Music goes 'round and 'round with variety at the Alternative Stage

The Alternative Stage, located in the lot behind the Joy Theater and the Lyon's Den, will be wailin' during Jamboree 2000.

Starting Friday at 4:00 p.m., Saturday and Sunday at noon, about 30 different acts will entertain with rock, country, blues and a whole lot more. The eclectic nature of the Stage includes musical saw players opening Saturday's performance and a Jug Band Jam on Sunday afternoon. Visiting and local musicians will perform along with favorites Curtis "King" Chamberlain and the Blind Rootin' Hogs, Lynn Conover, Alfred Easter and White-water, and Baby Gramps. The Stage closes Friday and Saturday nights at about 10:00 p.m. Sunday's final act, Baby

Gramps, will start at 5:15 p.m. Attendees are encouraged to bring chairs, sun protection or whatever else they need to be comfortable. Audience participation is encouraged during this casual, outdoor event.

A complete list of performers may be found elsewhere in this publication.

The Alternative Stage is free, live entertainment, but donations are gratefully accepted to help defray the costs of entertainers, many of whom travel a long way to perform. A tip jar will be available, or sponsorship contributions may be made directly to the Alternative Stage, c/o Curtis Chamberlain, 60120 Anderson Rd., St. Helens, OR 97051. Kids have fun going after straws in a haystack or coins in the wading pool

Games designed to keep younger children occupied during Jamboree will be held both Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 5-6.

The Haystack game, a favorite among younger children will be on Saturday afternoon. Although adults may itch just watching the kids tear into piles of hay, the only thing the kids itch for is colored straws mixed in with the hay. The straws are redeemed for prizes. Seven to 10-year olds will start the action at 1:00 p.m. in Hawkins Park; ages four to six will be at 1:45 and the youngest group, ages three and under, will start at 2:30.

Water game activities will be on Sunday, beginning at 2:00 p.m. at the Hawkins Park wading pool. These games are designed for children who don't yet swim, and include a penny dive, crab walk, candy hunt, freestyle race, and a water scavenger hunt.
