

Business Notes

Local woman now offers full service travel agency

Complete travel services are now available in Vernonia and the surrounding area without having to go anywhere or even call an agency outside the area.

Instead of continuing to go to her office in Beaverton, Melissa Zavales, an outside agent for American Express Travel, brought her office home and is providing customers with complete travel services right here from Vernonia.

After graduating from Vernonia High School, Zavales attended travel school and now has more than three years in the business. Her experience includes both wholesale and retail travel services, plus special expertise in travel to Hawaii.

One special service she offers her customers in Vernonia, Mist, Birkenfeld, Banks and the surrounding area is to deliver their travel documents to the customer's home or business. Whether you want tour information, need to book a tight business itinerary, want to fly ticketless, need hotel or car rental reservations, or other travel assistance, Melissa can help you.

She is available days, nights or weekends, by phone, 429-0600, or e-mail <zavales@dell.net.com>

Sohler, Hunt open Sunnyside Cafe

The restaurant at Sunnyside now has a new lease on life—more precisely, Kelly Sohler and Melissa Hunt have taken a lease on the building and re-opened it as Sunnyside Cafe.

The two long-time friends opened for business July 14 and are now serving breakfast and lunch from 5:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. daily.

Daily breakfast specials are featured, but their primary concern, Sohler and Hunt agreed, is to provide good food and good service. Customers can place orders to go by calling 429-4810. Deli meats and cheeses can also be purchased at Sunnyside.
