

Elephant Garlic Festival offers aromatic events in North Plains

The third Annual Elephant Garlic Festival is set to take place Aug. 18-20 in North Plains. Admission is free to the festival grounds at the Jessie Mays Community Center, 30975 NW Hillcrest Ave.

The festival offers a wide array of activities with concerts, a parade and of course all of the garlic products one can imagine, plus a few you've never considered!

Garlic crab cakes, garlic sausages, garlic ice cream and even garlic lattes will be available for consumption, as well as a garlic pancake breakfast on Saturday. Ronald MacDonald is scheduled to make an

Lady Braves offer Dance/Drill Clinic

The Banks Lady Braves Dance and Drill team will hold a dance clinic for boys and girls ages 3 and up.

The clinic will be held from 9:00 a.m. to 12 p.m., Aug. 16-18, at Banks High School. Cost is $40, and includes a T-shirt and snack.

Clinic participants will walk in the Banks Parade on Aug. 20th. For more information, call Joan Vandehey at 359-3247.

appearance, as well as the Portland Police Highland Bagpipe Band and Highland Honor Guard.

Live music, carnival games and stage shows will be in full swing to entertain and delight. A car show will run from 10 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on Saturday, until just before the coronation of "Mr. and Mrs. Elephant Garlic." The only requirement of this contest is a physique that resembles the herb the festival is named for.

Winners will preside over the 2000-2001 Grand Festival parade and represent the Elephant Garlic Festival at public events throughout the year.

The Grand Festival Parade will wind through town from the North Plains Elementary School, ending at the festival grounds. Michael MacMillan and Chris Walters are the Grand Marshals of this year's parade.

Pony rides will be available all three days of the festival.

The festival is open from 3:00 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Friday, 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday, and noon to 6:00 p.m. Sunday.

Animals are not allowed at the Elephant Garlic Festival
