

Friends of Scout Cabin prepare for first anniversary celebration

The public is invited to help celebrate the first anniversary of the beautifully renovated Scout Cabin in Hawkins Park, with an Appreciation Day on January 27, 2:00-4:00 p.m.

Tom Holce, whose generous contribution capped the fund raising efforts, as well as all other contributors and volunteers who helped make the renovation of the cabin possible, will be honored at this event.

The Scout Cabin is receiving much community support, with rentals for many special occasions making it possible for two Cub Scout groups – the Bears and the Webelows – and Boy Scout Troop 201 to use it on a regular basis. During this first year, there have been 25 rentals, 59 free youth events, and ten additional community events.

Friends of The Scout Cabin is a non-profit organization and receives no outside funding. The facility is maintained with income from rental fees combined with the services of volunteers.

Those who have not yet seen the interior of The Scout Cabin should avail themselves of this opportunity. The facility provides a good place for special events and meetings, while providing a free meeting place for local youth organizations and activities.

Valentine art show slated at Columbia Center Gallery

The Gallery at Columbia Center will present their "Be My Valentine" show for the month of February. The show is coordinated by The Art Committee of the Columbia Foundation and is the first sponsored by Boise Cascade.

Art submissions will be accepted on Monday, January 29, 4-6:00 p.m. at the Columbia Center, 375 S. 18th Street, St. Helens. Art should be prepared to be displayed by hanging from suspended wires. Artists may submit two pieces of work. Artists working in any medium are encouraged to submit their art for display and may also make their work available for sale through the Gallery. Work must be original, not classroom work and not nudes. The work must be available and remain on exhibit through the end of February.

The opening reception for the show will be 6-7:30 p.m., Friday, February 2. This will be a time to view the art, meet the artists and enjoy hors d'oeuvres and beverages. The event is catered by Simply Delicious of Vernonia.

For more information, visit <www.columbiacenter.org/home/acceptanceguidelines.htm> or call 503-397-1139.

During January, Columbia Center is featuring "Photographic Expressions," a local photography exhibit and view diverse photographic works of local artists.
