

OR-OSHA scholarships for families of injured or dead workers

Oregon resident high school graduates, GED certificate holders or college students whose parent or spouse was injured or died as a result of a work-related incident, may be eligible for a scholarship.

The Department of Consumer and Business Services Oregon Occupational Safety and Health Division (OR-OSHA) is offering annual scholarships from an account established by the 1991 Legislature at the request of the Oregon AFL-CIO. The Workers' Memorial Scholarship Account is used for educational needs of spouses or children of permanently disabled or fatally injured workers. Legislation in 1999 increased the fund, enabling a distribution of approximately $12,000 for the 2001-2002 school year.

The Safe Employment Education and Training Advisory Committee, an appointed advisory group for OR-OSHA grants, has been given the authority to determine the scholarship standard and select the recipients.

The deadline for submitting an application for the 2001-2002 school year is March 1. Application forms are available from the Oregon Student Assistance Commission, 1500

Valley River Drive, Suite 100, Eugene, OR 97401-7706, high school guidance counselors, or Oregon college financial aid departments. Applicants must be Oregon residents receiving fatality benefits, a dependent or spouse of a fatally injured worker, or be the dependent or spouse of an Oregon worker who incurred a permanent total disability under Oregon Revised Statute 656.206.

For more information, call Phyllis Straight-Millan, Oregon OSHA at 503-378-3272 or e-mail phyllis.s.straightmillan@state.or.us or call Alan Baas, Oregon Student Assistance Commission, 1-800-452-8807 ext 7422 or send e-mail to the commission at susan.d.taylor@state.or.us.
