MARGARET M. T. PETTI

Margaret MacDonald Thiele Petti, 85, Portland, died June 1, 2001. At her request, no service was held. Private entombment was at Mount Calvary Cemetery.

Margaret MacDonald was born January 15, 1916, in Republic, Wash., to a Scottish father and Norwegian mother. When she was 5, her family moved to Vernonia. She graduated from Vernonia High School at 14 and headed straight for Northwestern School of Commerce in Portland. Tuition was steep at $20 a month. The $200 her father had given her wouldn't last long, so she finished a 15 month course in three months, leaving enough money to buy work clothes and hunt for a job. She landed a job as a bookkeeper at the Imperial Hotel, where she soon was running the dining room, too.

Her efficiency was noticed by Henry Thiele, a German-born master chef. When he opened his own restaurant in 1932, he hired Miss MacDonald from the Imperial.

The bookkeeper and the chef, 34 years her senior, were married in 1943. He died in 1952, at age 69. Later that year, she married August Petti, an Italian-born clothing designer who had become a restaurant patron. He soon joined his wife in the restaurant. He died in 1991, at age 99.

In her later life, Mrs. Petti was a philanthropist, using the Margaret MacDonald Thiele Petti Trust to help many organizations. When the new public library was under construction in Vernonia, she responded with a generous grant that was used to buy furnishings for the library. The meeting room in the library is named in her honor.

Survivors include a sister, Nina Hinton of Portland, nieces and nephews.

Remembrances are suggested to American Diabetes Association, 380 SW Spokane, Portland OR 97202.

She was a member of the Alpine Assembly of God Church and the Vernonia Foursquare Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband in 1986, five brothers and sisters.
