

Descendents of the Ralph Mahar family got together for the 2000 Vernonia Jamboree parade with a banner, pep squad and dozens of family members.

Leading the parade was a color guard from the Oregon National Guard.

The Astoria Regatta court provided one essential for a parade: Pretty girls on a pretty float.

Winners of the 2000 Jamboree Parade

Viewers at the 2001 Vernonia Jamboree Parade will once again be delighted by the antics of the Astoria Clowns.

Saturday morning at 10:00 a.m., parade viewers will enjoy the zany bunch with erratic bicycles and slapstick humor.

The parade grand marshal will be Myra Baska. Honorary Grand Marshal is Wilbur Wilson. Citizens of the year are Don and DeDe Webb.

The Vernonia Senior Citizens will be represented by Enid Parrow, who also represented Vernonia at the Columbia County Fair in the "My Fair Lady" pageant.

There will be numerous classic and/or antique vehicles, many equestrian entries, representation from the local timber industry, floats and much more.

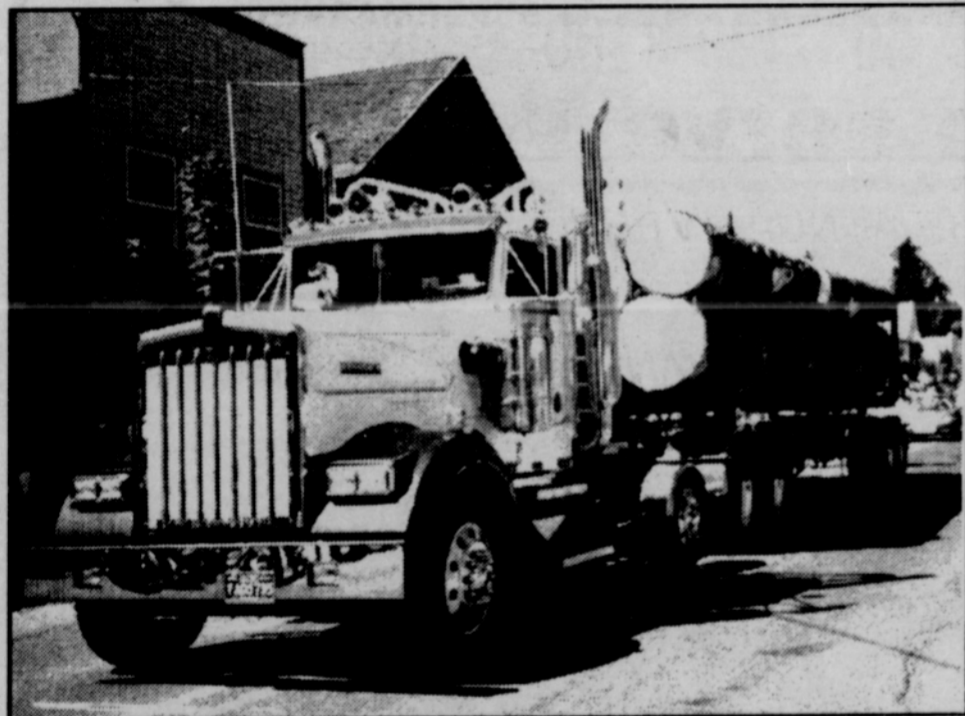

Clark McGaugh provided alternative transportation for the colorful Alternative Stage banner.

Parade registration starts at 8:00 a.m. Judging will be at 9:30, with winners receiving their awards before the parade starts at 10:00 a.m. The staging area will be at Weed Avenue and Bridge Street. Because of limited space, entries will start disbanding at State and Bridge, depending upon which way they need to depart from the area.

For more information, call Randy Parrow at 503-429-1093.

Bighorn Logging provided one of the many log trucks.
