Slide threatens Scappoose-Vernonia Road

What goes up, must come down, goes the old saying. Unfortunately, that sometimes refers to mountains.

According to Columbia County Public Works Director Dave Hill, a mountain is threatening to come down on top of Scappoose-Vernonia Road and, if that happens, the road will be destroyed.

A large bump keeps developing on the road, near Bonnie Falls, that appears to be caused by a "slip plane" on the north side of the road. The mountain is sliding, but the depth and extent of the slide area can't be determined. As it slides, it is thrusting the pavement up rather than coming down on top of it.

The area, about three miles from Hwy. 30, is marked with traffic cones and signs that urge drivers to slow down while driving through the area.

Hill has had trees cut from the moving hill, about ten feet up, to reduce the weight of the mountain, while leaving the tree roots to help hold the hill together. There are visible cracks in the hillside and the area is visually inspected every day in an effort to keep track of what the hillside is doing.

A parallel logging road is also showing cracks.

New state laws have now taken effect

The Oregon Legislature passed 551 bills in 2001, that have now become effective. Among the bills are the following:

- An intoxicated person who suffers injuries as a result of drinking, cannot sue the server who poured the drinks.
- Children who are age 4 or 5, or who weigh 40 to 60 pounds, must sit in booster seats when riding in a vehicle. A child in these categories may no longer be secured with just a seat belt.
- People under the age of 16 may not ride a motorized scooter. All others must wear a helmet, ride in a bike lane and adhere to the speed limit.

- Local governments may not pass ordinances that restrict the use of cellphones.
- Smoking is banned in workplaces and areas of restaurants where minors are allowed. The smoking ban does not apply to bars, taverns and bowling alleys.
- School districts must adopt policies prohibiting bullying (by January 1, 2004).
- High school students will no longer be required to take two years of a foreign language, but they must still demonstrate proficiency in a language other than English.

- A new program will give books to children who do not have them at home.
- People must now show a birth certificate or government-issued photo ID card to get a replacement driver's license or Division of Motor Vehicles ID card.
- Limits the amount of taxes on a cigar to 50 cents per cigar.
