

Police Memorial Day is May 15th

Police Memorial Day, May 15, is dedicated to our nation's police officers. On that day, law enforcement officers may wear black ribbons on their badges. Family members of an officer killed in the line of duty, may place flowers tied with a black ribbon at the grave site.

Concerned citizens who also wish to show their respect, may wear a memorial sticker which may be obtained, free, from the American Police Hall of Fame by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope, requesting the sticker, to APHF, 3801 Biscayne Blvd, Miami, FL 33137.

Various activities are appropriate for the observance - local ceremonies, flying U.S. Flags at half mast or with a black ribbon. Some churches will dedicate police week and Police Memorial Day and offer prayers for the safety of all officers. Awards may be presented to recognize police officers for going beyond their normal duties or to recognize citizens who help the police through volunteer work.

For more information, call the American Police Hall of Fame at 1-877-393-7733.
