CARD OF THANKS

The family of Howard Jones extends our deep appreciation for the support extended to us during Howard's illness, his memorial service and at the luncheon gathering following the service. The flowers, cards and memorials mean so much to us, and the food and welcoming at the Masonic Lodge was so thoughtful and such a special time for us. Thank you especially to the Mist Birkenfeld Fire District, the Mist Helping Circle, the Masonic Lodge and Wabanag Chapter 127 OES, Malcolm and Jackie Groulx, Reverend Patsy Sturdevant and each dear friend who prepared or served food, sent flowers, cards and memorials, or attended the service. Your support is a great comfort to us. We thank you very much.
