New Moon Llamas do well in fair competition

Don and Nancy Dailey, owners of New Moon Llamas in Vernonia, participated in the Alpaca and Llama Association show held in July at the Lincoln County Fair in Newport. Llama farmers from Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho and California attended the event. Approximately 160 llamas were involved.

Participants competed in several showmanship classes and in Open Obstacle and Open Public Relations, requiring the llama and handler to negotiate a 10-obstacle course. The three llamas entered by the Daileys placed second, third and fifth.

Wyden schedules Clatsop meeting

U.S. Senator Ron Wyden (D-Ore.) will host a Clatsop County town hall meeting August 15 from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., at the Columbia River Maritime Museum, 1792 Marine Drive in Astoria.

When first elected to the Senate, Wyden promised to hold a town hall meeting in every county, every year. Wyden invites all Clatsop County residents to attend the public meeting to discuss issues of local and national importance and to share their concerns for the current legislative session.

There is only one thing about which I am certain, and that is that there is very little about which one can be certain.
