Chaplain John Stetzer for support of dispatchers and their role in handling traumatic situations; Jake Johnson, the District cleaning guy...always quiet and professional and understanding of the sometimes chaotic work area; Columbia River Fire and Rescue Division Chief Ron Youngberg for outstanding partnership with 9-1-1 staff and fire districts in the planning, preparation and implementation of the computer aided dispatch automatic apparatus assignment and tone activation project.

Two employees received the District Big Thanks! award: Sue Reedy, for outstanding planning, preparation and implementation of the computer aided dispatch automatic apparatus assignment and tone activation project; Kathy Simek, for her special way of supporting 9-1-1 staff, from a word of caring to freshly baked cookies to well prepared assignments.
