

Providence Health Fair fun

More than 50 people took advantage of the health fair sponsored by Providence Family Medicine-Vernonia to have free blood pressure and cholesterol checks, and glucose screenings.

Even more people enjoyed the activities, entertainment, good food and fun at last Saturday's event, while gathering information about a number of health care issues.

Janie Wasmann, with staff members of the Vernonia clinic, was the happy winner of a deluxe gas barbecue donated by Hi School Pharmacy of Scappoose. L-R are Heidi Bidstrup, Mark Livingston, M.D., Judith Hargis, P.A.C., Marla Rethwill, Wasmann, Sue Blair and Dawn Anderson, M.A.

Culpepper & Merriweather Circus to appear in Scappoose

The Culpepper & Merriweather Circus will present two shows May 23, at 5:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. at the Cinnamon Tree Business Park on Highway 30, one block north of the Scappoose Fire Station.

Elephants, clowns, aerialists and the magic of the circus will be presented in one and one-half hours of fun.

Prices for advance tickets are $5.00 for children and $7.00 for adults, and are available at Columbia City Library, Key Title-Ticor St. Helens and Scappoose offices, All State Insurance-Scappoose, Columbia River PUD-Deer Island.

The Scappoose Community Club is sponsoring the circus.
