T. Schreiner moves up, again

Longview's Troy Schreiner was a three-time winner as he won the sportsman main, heat and took first place in qualifying (15.56), while he was runnerup in the trophy dash to "Flying" Brian Vaughn of Longview. Schreiner moved atop the standings as he overtook Sandy's Randy Allen, who led the division since the May 10 season opener. Allen was runnerup, followed by Vaughn, Castle Rock's Doug Hurley and Brittain. Sportsman Rookie-of-the-Year contender Lisa Liner of St. Helens, posted a third straight top-10 with a season best seventh place in the Liner Racing Malibu.

"This was a good, fast-paced race and I sure was glad to get my first top-five this year," said Brittain, who was seventh fastest in qualifying (16.71) with her Predator Motorsports/Carousel Concessions Chevy Monte Carlo. "I'm hoping to have many more races like this and hopefully I'll finish up front more consistently."
