Columbia Center sponsors Black Tie and Blue Jeans fundraiser

Columbia Foundation and Technology Center has announced that its signature event - "Black Tie and Blue Jeans" - dinner, auction and summer social, will be held again this year. Friends of the Foundation and users of Columbia Center are invited to donate auction items for the event. All donations must be made and delivered by July 10.

The benefit dinner and auction will be on Saturday, August 2, from 4:00 to 11:00 p.m. at the Deer Island Stock Ranch. Guests will enjoy a full dinner, assorted desserts, a no-host bar, raffle drawing, and both live and silent auctions. A band will provide music for your listening pleasure and dancing, following the auction.

The Foundation board invites participation in this event to support the educational and community building activities of the Columbia Foundation and Technology Center. The Foundation offers community classes, private tutoring, free open lab, meeting spaces for the community and a high school scholarship program. We also provide Internet service, computer technical support, domain hosting and web page design.

Tickets are now on sale with Corporate tables at $600. Friends tables ensure group seating for eight at $480. Individual tickets are $60 per person.

Corporate sponsors are also needed for the event. Sponsors donate $1,000-$10,000 and receive promotional benefits in various publications and forums.

To donate auction items, reserve tables and tickets, or for information call 503-397-1139 to contact Jill Hummer, ext. 212, or e-mail: <jill@colcenter.org> or Anita Keltz, ext 200, or <akeltz@colcenter.org>
