

Rose City Motorcycle Club fills Vernonia Cares cupboard, again

Following the devastating flood in February of 1996, the Rose City Motorcycle Club "adopted" Vernonia Cares emergency food bank. Since their first trip — on a rainy March day — they have made from two to four trips each year to bring food and sundries to people needing some help.

Supporting the club on every trip has been Bob Lanphere Honda of Beaverton, who has provided a van and driver to deliver the donations to Vernonia.

On the latest trip, Saturday, June 21, the club brought nearly 1400 pounds of food they purchased for Vernonia Cares.

Calculating roughly 21 trips during seven-and-a-half years, with 1400 pounds of food donated on each trip, the club's donations total 29,400 pounds — nearly 15 tons of good natured, dedicated generosity.

Pictured above are Rose City Motorcycle Club members who were on the latest trip, along with Vernonia Cares volunteers who helped unload the food, then sorted and weighed it, and gratefully stocked the shelves.
