

Brewer dominates 2002 Jamboree Logging Show, taking Columbia Co.

2002 Columbia County Logger of the Year, Gregg Brewer accepts new Husqvarna saw from Vernonia Logging Show Chairman Bill Woolsey.

Gregg Brewer of Taylorville won the All-Around Logger Title at the 2002 Vernonia Logging Show. He will be awarded a gold-plated axe at the beginning of the 2003 show. The golden axe is sponsored by Wilcox & Flegel of Longview, Washington.

Three competitors kept Brewer on his toes all day – Matt Samuelson of Elsie, Jeremy Chalk of St. Helens, and Shane Holum of Clatskanie each earned 15 points to Brewer's 19 points.

Brewer also won the title of 2002 Columbia County Logger of the Year, by accumulating the most points at logging shows in Clatskanie, Rainier, St. Helens and Vernonia. For this title, Brewer took home a new Husqvarna chain saw sponsored by Triple S Saw Shop of Vernonia and Friesen Lumber of St. Helens.
