Kerri Smith burns up the RiverCity track

women's division behind frontrunner Kari Puncocar of Hillsboro. Smith had another remarkable performance as she won the trophy dash, took third in the heat and fourth in the main with her STC Race Parts/Alliance Automotive Buick Regal. Kelso's Paula Timmons, who has been almost unbeatable recently with three wins and a runnerup, captured a second consecutive victory in the Ace Auto Wrecking Chevy truck. Vancouver's Jacki Graham was a straight-away length back in second. Marcie Heckman of Scappoose (third) registered her third top-five finish this year in the Heckman Trucking Malibu.

Joe Lires of St. Helens, was as hot as a firecracker in mini stock preliminary events on the quarter-mile clay oval track. Lires was fastest in qualifying at 16.56 seconds, he was second in the dash and he won the heat with his McMullen Water Systems Toyota Celica. After a ninth place main event finish though, Lires lead in the division standings probably almost evaporated as Vancouver's Dan Cherington, who trailed by just 14 points, won in his Circle H Enterprises/Dusty's Machine Shop Datsun.
