

Weather sparkles for ribbon-cutting ceremony at Airport Park

Following an official ribbon-cutting ceremony to celebrate major improvements at Vernonia's Airport Park, Oregon Youth Conservation Corps workers happily took visitors on a tour of their efforts, pointing out the foot bridge and path from the airport, new primitive camp sites — including three handicapped accessible sites, new well, restrooms and black-topped paths.

Airport Park has always had some primitive camp sites, but the flood of 1996 wrecked what infrastructure existed. The improvements were funded by a grant obtained through the Oregon Department of Parks & Recreation.

Enjoying the festivities were Marilyn Lipponcott of the Oregon Department of Parks & Recreation, Diana Plahn of MTC, which sponsored the summer youth workers, Columbia County Commissioners Tony Hyde and Joe Corsiglia, Mayor Cindy Ball and Councilwoman Shirlee Daughtry, plus members of the Vernonia Parks Commission, city staff and some curious bystanders.
