OSP asks for information about trailhead signs stolen recently

Thieves have recently cost taxpayers several hundred dollars in the form of signs stolen from the Banks-Vernonia State Park.

All of the signs at both the Beaver Creek Trailhead and the Top Hill Trailhead were stolen, probably during the first weekend in April.

Anyone with information regarding these thefts is asked to call either the Banks-

Vernonia State Park office at 503-324-0606, or any office of the Oregon State Police office. The number for the Banks OSP office is 503-324-2170.

In addition, signs were recently stolen from around Vernonia Lake and the Linear Park in Vernonia. Calls with information on these signs can be made to Vernonia Police or to the numbers given above for the Park or State Police.
