Don't miss the fun at the River Fest on May first

Are you ready for Vernonia River Fest on Saturday, May 1? It promises to provide a full day of fun for all ages, with many different activities planned.

Float from Anderson Park to Big Eddy in your own boat or raft, or rent one. The full trip will take about three hours. Or, float just to the half-way point. Transportation will be provided back to Vernonia from both take-out points. Launch times run from 8:00 a.m. to noon. Reservations for equipment can be made through Mark or Debbie Hall at 503-429-8382 or at <halldebby@verizon.net>.

Other activities will include the debut of the Vernonia Country Market at Hawkins Park with handcrafted items and home grown produce; plastic duck races (well, they will float anyway) down Rock Creek at 2:30 p.m.; Maypoles will be decorated in Hawkins Park; The River Fest Chili Cookoff will determine who makes great chili; a Home Brew Contest should provide good chili quenching power; a beer garden in Hawkins Park; live music; music by deejay; food, food, food will be available from the Buckhorn Restaurant, Heritage Baking and Charity BBQs; it will be a free fishing day at Vernonia Lake, and there are probably more activities scheduled that haven't been mentioned.

Find race ducks at Vernonia Mercantile, Triple S Saw Shop or by contacting Mark or Debbie Hall at the number previously provided. To participate in the Chili Cookoff, contact Nancy Dailey at <www.newmoonllamas.com>. The Home Brew Contest is being coordinated by Brett Costley, <http://home.agalis.net/bcostley/vrfbc>.

Scappoose Bay Kayaking and Andy and Bax are sponsoring the event.

Come join the fun. There will be something for everyone and, hopefully, the weather will cooperate and provide the perfect day for the Vernonia River Fest.
