USDA home loans available

USDA, Rural Development has been allotted $940,000 for repair loans and grants to very-low income homeowners in rural Oregon. The housing repair program is designed to improve living standards by repairing roofs, installing storm windows, insulation, wiring, heating/cooling systems, plumbing, etc. There is no cost to apply.

Loans can be made up to $20,000, for 20 year periods, at one-percent interest. A $5,000 loan would require payments of $23 per month.
