Wauna FCU promotes Page to branch manager, names Brackman compliance officer

Brandi Page has been promoted to Branch Manager of the Vernonia Branch of Wauna Federal Credit Union.

Since joining the Wauna Federal CU team in June of 1998, Page has served in a number of capacities. Her first position was as a Member Service Representative at the Clatskanie Branch, where she was promoted to Teller Supervisor in 2001. For the past 15 months, she has served as

Brandi Page

Teller Supervisor of the Vernonia Branch.

Page has furthered her education by taking advantage of educational opportunities available to her during her employment at Wauna Federal CU. She is WFCU's current IRA expert.

"I look forward to the opportunity to serve the Vernonia Community in a more direct capacity," Page said, "and to build business relationships."

Another promotion has placed Randy Brackman in the position of Chief Compliance Officer.

Brackman has served as Collection Supervisor at Wauna Federal CU since 1988 and has been instrumental in developing programs that significantly enhanced the Collection Department.

Meeting to discuss conservation programs for rural landowners

A Rural Landowner Conservation Summit and Social Gathering will be held in Banks on Thursday, September 16, 7-9:00 p.m. at the Banks Fire Station.

Topics for discussion will be the various conservation programs that are available to ru-
